

TWO MILLIONS A QUARTER!

COMPARATIVELY NEW.

It's comparatively a new thing to be able to send your coachman or footman, or in fact any attendant of your household, to be fitted in ready-made livery. It's only a very few houses that carry a full and complete line even now. WE'RE ONE OF THEM—the only one, we believe, in this part of the country.

There are lots of stores where they'll show you a sample and get you a duplicate of it in two or three days, but we can fit your man on the spot, and he can carry the garments away with him if he likes. If we go into a thing it's not by halves. Some few years ago we made up our minds to carry liveries, and from that time we've never been without a full assortment of everything seasonable and fashionable. These garments are most satisfactory in their appearance and wear. They are cut after the patterns and directions of the English and American plates—the highest authorities on all matters of dress fashion—made by our own artisans; so we know they're all right.

We want to announce our Spring Liveries in shape for your inspection. The colorings of the coach coats, especially, are extremely rich. The leading ones are blue, green, wine, and shades in tan. We can match the coats in the trousers. We offer them to you as perfect-fitting garments, and we stand behind them as such.

For the indoor servants we've an inexhaustible stock of everything needed—from the bell-boy to the butler, from the front door to the kitchen.

What'll they cost? Well, you come and see them. If you've been in the habit of buying liveries you'll find us characteristically low in price. It's too often the case that fancy prices are attached to goods of this character. We tolerate nothing of that kind. We mark the price—the LOWEST that these qualities can be sold for—PLAINLY, and never deviate from it for any cause.

HOW'S THAT? That's the volume of business done by Messrs. Brokaw Bros., of New York, last year. This was in their retail department alone and without the aid of a line of advertising. What's the inference? The clothing they sell MUST be of a supremely high character. That's the fact. Any one who has worn their garments once will be sure to do so again. There's not a retail clothier in America but would be glad to handle the goods manufactured by this firm. Not only glad—but are anxious to do so. They're extremely careful, however, to whom they entrust the representation of their house. It must be a concern that has made a reputation for handling first-class clothing. There are only half a dozen in the United States to whom the privilege has been extended, and we are one of them—THE ONLY ONE IN THIS CITY. We're manufacturers ourselves. We think we can put together most creditable garments; but we are not blind to the fact that we have equals—and most notable among them is the above house and manufacturers.

We announce ourselves as retailers of the finest clothing manufactured either in this country or abroad, and we throw open our stock to you in substantiation of the claim.

In our Children's Department we take our pick—the same as we do in the Men's Department. We've tried all and single out the best manufacturers. King among them is a concern whose reputation is bounded only by the oceans. Every mother knows Best & Co.'s Liliputian Bazar, and of the crowning merits of their goods. We sought and were granted the exclusive right to handle for the State of Virginia their choicest productions.

We cite these instances to show you that our assertions are not made idly and carelessly—unprotected by the facts; but when we claim a superiority of resources it is susceptible of absolute proof—proof that will be ACCEPTED as positive; for the high character of the concerns from whom we draw is world-wide.

In this connection we want to announce the arrival of our varied styles of Spring Overcoats. We've never beheld a more attractive assortment—shades and colorings that are sure to catch your eye.

The spring styles of Suits have also, one by one, dropped in, and they, too, show the result of a most vivid conception on the part of the designing artist. As fast as they arrived we put them in shape. Look in at them. Admire them, even if you don't want to purchase just now; but see what beautiful garments will take the lead in the coming season.

We want to say a word or two about NECKWEAR. There are numbers of gentlemen who labor under the erroneous impression that in order to get a fashionable Cravat they must pay a dollar or two for it. Well, maybe, in some places they must. But we invite your careful investigation of our 50-cent line of Neckwear. We submit it as the latest in style—possessing all the newest shades in the prevailing patterns—and we can also heartily commend the quality. To pay three or four times as much for something that does not come any nearer the correct thing than our 50-cent ones do seems to us extravagance; and you only need, we believe, to have this matter brought to your attention, to inquire into it for yourselves. Of course we've got the higher-priced Scarfs—got them all—from all the leading, celebrated manufacturers; but we tell you in all honesty we consider our 50-cent goods creditable for ANY gentleman to wear. A 50-cent Tie bought of us gives you a quality usually sold for 75 cents and $1. This must be taken into consideration. Try one of our fifty-centers. The leading Spring Styles are in, and we've got the largest variety we've ever had.

For Several Days Past a Poster in Front of Our Store Has Read:

"REDWOOD, MILLS & CO.

WILL OCCUPY THIS STORE IN A FEW DAYS WITH A

FRESH STOCK OF DRY GOODS AND SMALL WARES

AT EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICES."

THESE ARE THE EXACT FACTS, BUT IN OPENING FOR BUSINESS TO-MORROW (MONDAY) MORNING, AND "MAKING OUR BOW" TO THE CITIZENS OF RICHMOND AND ITS VICINITY, SOMETHING MORE MAY NOT BE AMISS. WE HAVE UNUSUAL FACILITIES FOR BUYING LOW, WHICH ADVANTAGE WE SHALL FULLY SHARE WITH OUR PATRONS. AT THE AGE OF TWENTY-TWO ONE OF OUR PART-NEERS WAS THOUGHT WORTHY TO BE FOREIGN BUYER FOR A LARGE NEW YORK HOUSE, FILLING THE POSITION FOR SEVERAL YEARS BEFORE COMMENCING BUSINESS ON HIS OWN ACCOUNT. AS THIS WAS LONGER AGO THAN IT IS ALTOGETHER PLEASANT FOR HIM TO REALIZE, AND HE HAS BEEN BUYING WITHOUT INTERMISSION EVER SINCE, IT MAY BE INFERRED HIS HAND HAS NOT LOST ITS CUNNING. OUR EXPECTATION IS TO SECURE THE LARGEST CASH DISCOUNT ON THE WHOLE PURCHASE—ON THE NET COST A SMALL PROFIT HAS BEEN PLACED. WE ASK THE COURTESY OF A CALL OF INSPECTION. YOU WILL CERTAINLY RETURN FROM SELF-INTEREST, FOR YOU SHALL RECEIVE A FULLY LOW PRICES AND POLITENESS.

WE SHALL KEEP NO ACCOUNTS OR MEMORANDUM TICKETS WHATSOEVER, BUT BY ARRANGEMENT, GOODS DESIRED ON APPROVAL MAY BE RETURNED AND THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. OUR STOCK WILL EMBRACE DRESS GOODS, SILKS, GINGHAMS AND SATINES, DOMESTICS, CASSIMERES, WHITE GOODS, EMBROIDERIES AND LACES, UPHOLSTERY GOODS AND BUGS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, GLOVES, CORSETS, PARASOLS, SHIRTS AND DRAWERS, COLLARS AND CUFFS, HANDKERCHIEFS, SCARFS, AND FANCY GOODS AND SMALL WARES GENERALLY—A FEW ITEMS BEING NOT YET RECEIVED.

THE SYSTEM WILL BE STRICTLY ONE-PRICE.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,
